2 The Estimates of Income under "House Tax" in all the Municipalities remain the same as in the last year (1877-78) but in those marked in the margin, they are high when compared with the actuals of the year 1877-78 and of the first 6 months of the year 1878-79. The actuals for these years may have fallen short of their respective Estimates, probably owing to the calamitous effects of famine. The Commissioner is requested to take steps to recover during the current year not only the full amounts of the Estimates now provided for under the head, but also the arrears if any of the previous years. In incurring Expenditure however due regard shall be had to the actual available Collection

Receipts House Tax.

+ Kolar. Bowringpett Sreenivaspura Chintamony Mulbagal. Siddaghatta Chikballapur. Malur.

3. In the case of the Kolar Municipality, it is presumed that the Estimated income from the "Shop keepers Tax" is included in that under "House Tax". The receipts from the former should have been shown separately under under the head "Tax on Professions & Trades". This should be done in future.

Superior Debts.

The amount provided for under "Head Office Charges" is £67½. From this, a sum of £13½, being part of the provision on account of the establishment in the Comm^rs Office, recently abolished, has been deducted leaving a balance of £54 the details of which according to the Statement submitted with the Chief Comm^rs No. 220 Dg^d. August 18/8, are as shewn in the margin; and to this has been supplemented by another sum of £54, being the contributions payable by the Police Magistracy on account of the pay of the ml: Clerk in the Dy: Accts: Generals' Office, under orders conveyed in the A.G.Mr.Secy's No: 1988 Dg 25th April 1871 ~~raising~~ the total provision thus raised to £108, which will be debited to the Town of Pelaw.

Mr. Gor- 2 or 3 sweepers employed and no carts, a Chikballapur, either the Daroga or the necessary. The Mutsaddis in these municipalities Gauribidnur and Malur, where there are the others, a peon or Daroga on small pay to the Mutsaddi over them can scarcely be and the carts and sweepers employed, would seem should also be dispensed with.
